IMPORTANT MEMORANDUM

TO: ALL EMPLOYEES
RE: PRINTER AREA HYGEINE

Please remember that every time you click "Print," but then decide you didn't really need a printout after all, that the document still gets printed, but the paper doesn't magically transform into some slutty, ultra-stacked hitchhiker who just catches a quick ride from the printer tray to the recycling bin. No, it really doesn't! "Someone Else" has to get it. And "Someone Else" is getting tired of being your fucking maid! So drag your fat ass out of your chair and come pick up your shit before "Someone Else" goes totally postal and decides to jam a fistful of abandoned spreadsheet hard copies up your stupid, puckered, cubicle-monkey ass!

Thank you. 😊
